

please do not weaken our do not call program in nj. the amount of garbage calls we received before the program were so annoyinng and stressful--we couldn't even answer our phone which would ring way too often and disturb the sancturary of our home. the program is working so please don't mess with it. best, avery